Weekly Warrior Spotlight

This week's Weekly Warriors are Ms. Gilligan and her 1st graders-Ms. Megan Gilligan is in her 3rd year of teaching at CAI. She graduated from the University of Louisville with her Bachelor's degree and is currently working on getting her Master's degree through Campbellsville University. Ms. Gilligan attends Eastside Christian Church and enjoys serving the Lord through short-term mission trips and service projects. She just started running this year and ran her first 5k last spring! Ms. Gilligan loves working at CAI because of the great relationships she gets to develop with parents and children inside and outside of the classroom.

Ms. Gilligan's class loves to create and be outside. They create things every chance they get! This year, they have made several different types of desserts, created turkey traps out of cardboard, created a coded map for an ozobot, and this January, they will be creating a virtual town. Ms. Gilligan's class takes every opportunity they can to get outside, and they love to read informational books, write stories and play! Ms. Gilligan's students love that they serve a creative God and use His creation for inspiration every day.
