Senior Conner Haun Drills Buzzer Beater to Defeat Bardstown

Bardstown came to CAL on January 21st fully expecting an easy win against our little private school. But Conner Haun had other plans. After a back and forth game for all four quarters, and with the score tied at 71 with the clock winding down, our offense calmly moved the ball around looking for the last shot. Super sophomore George Washington found Conner Haun on the left baseline. Haun never hesitated. His 14 foot jumper was straight and true. Dagger. CAL wins 73-71. Teammates swarmed Haun and CAL finally broke through with their first signature win over a big school this season. This one was extra sweet as CAL fell just short of a big win last week against Trinity (2OT). Coach Aaron Hill put the game in the hands of upperclassmen Daniels, Haun, Lagestee, and Wearsch. Along with Washington, the seniors were on the floor at the end. (continued on next page)

Win or lose. Live or die. The senior quartet has been playing together wearing the red, white, and blue since sixth grade, each with a different role. Haun is the Dennis Rodman of the bunch, diving, kicking, and deflecting. Wearsch blocks shots and scores with a smooth array of Dirk Nowitzki moves. Lagestee is the tough rebounding guard like Terry Rozier who shoots the three like Kyle Korver. Lagestee was hit in the face during the fourth quarter and bled all over the floor and sideline, halting the game for a 7 minute clean up (the refs didn't see it and never called a foul). We thought his night was over. But he somehow made a miraculous clotting recovery and put himself back out on the floor for the last sequence. His presence drew a double team allowing Haun to get open for the final shot. Daniels is the Gary Payton lock down defender of the group, using his athletic ability to cover the other team's best offensive player. This quartet has won well over 100 games going back six years.

Another stellar offensive performance, CAL again shot over fifty percent from the field (51%). George Washington continued his torrid scoring pace netting 32 points with 3 three pointers. Stephen Wearsch hit 55% of his shots en route to 12 and 5 rebounds. Brayden Daniels had 7 and 6. Tyler Lagestee had 3 and 5. Erhardt 9. Hodge 4.

CAL 78 Kentucky Country Day 46

KCD was never in this game as CAL cruised to an easy victory at home. Sophomore sensation George Washington scored 29 points on 55% shooting with 7 steals. He led all scorers. Wearsch had 12 and 6. Lagestee had 5 and 7, leading all rebounders. Haun had 6 and 4. Daniels scored 4 points with 4 rebounds and 4 assists. Hodge and Erhardt each had 5. Some of the younger boys got into the game. McClure, B. Washington, and Wilkinson all scored.

CAL 51 Beechwood 71

CAL added a last minute game Saturday night up along the river in northern Kentucky against Beechwood High school. After playing great basketball over the last four games, CAL came out flat and put up a sub par performance, losing by 20. We just never got it going this night. Give Beechwood credit, though, as they were well coached and hounded us defensively. They obviously watched film on us. They doubled teamed Washington and kept hand and body checking him throughout the night stopping our flow. The refs never called it. That being said, down about 15 points in the 3rd quarter, we were able to make a run and close the gap to 3 points led by Wearsch. The senior captain scored 9 points in the quarter, on his way to 17 points and 10 rebounds overall. In a rare highlight, Wearsch grabbed a big rebound and threw a nice full court football pass to George Washington for a monstrous dunk that shocked the spectators. The deep Beechwood team, however, would gradually pull away in the fourth. Washington finished with 15 and Haun had 8 and 8.

CAL's record stands at 4-5.
