Brooklyn Shields and Nicole Tucker had two.

The second game of the week was against a one-loss Switzerland County team. The Lady Warriors had stretches of very good basketball and had the game tied in the third quarter. In the end though, Switzerland County pulled away and took the victory. The final score was 47-37. Brooklyn Shields had 11 points, including two three pointers. Ashlin Owen had 11 points and was five for six from the free throw line. Lilly Yates had 10 points and shot 100% from the free throw line. Leah Stevens had five points, including one three pointer.

-LAST WEEK'S SUMMARIES (CONT'D)-

7/8 BOYS BASKETBALL

The Blue team traveled to South Central on Tuesday. The Warriors struggled to generate offense and had too many defensive breakdowns, eventually falling 8-11. Grant Denny provided a spark, scoring seven points. The Blue team rebounded on Saturday with a strong outing against Rock Creek. The Warriors improved their defensive effort, using it's defense to generate transition offense. The Warriors won 35-22.

The scoring was well balanced and strong efforts were turned in by Aslan Esparza, Grant Decker, Daniel McDonald, Malachi Weilbaker, Gavin Taylor and Zeke Irvin.

The Gold team played a very competitive game against South Central. It was a defensive battle for much of the game, with both teams limiting the other team's offense. In the end, the Warriors were not able to generate enough offense, losing 26-20. Cooper Lewis led the Warriors with 11 points. The Gold team used the same defensive effort against Rock Creek, but was able to uncorked the offense, making runs in the second and third quarter. The Warriors were victorious 45-23. Scoring for the Warriors came from Jude Hickman (14), Cooper Lewis (13), Noah Vance (7), Nathan Cavanaugh (4), Ethan Clifton (4) and Braden Jenkins (3).

The next match-up of the week saw the Warriors take on South Central. Despite two loses (23-29 and 28-38) the games were much closer throughout. Kylie Kerberg nailed a clutch three during the first half of play. In game two, the Warriors were led in scoring by Addison Jackson with nine points and Carly Stevens with eight points.

CAI then faced Paoli in a tough match-up. The Lady Warriors lost the first game 18-31, and were led by Carly Stevens & Lily Siekman. Riley Collins also contributed for the Warriors with a rebound and put back for two points. The second game was a heartbreaking 19-20 loss in a game that seemed to be back and forth the entire night. The girls showed a lot of determination despite the one-point loss. Macy Jackson led the way with 10 points, five steals, one assist. Addison Jackson and Maddie Webb were strong on the boards with a combined 20 rebounds.

In the final match-up of the week, CAI took on Rock Creek. The Lady Warriors lost 25-39 in a game that was close until late in the 3rd quarter.
