Elementary News

Chapel-In our 3rd-5th grade chapel, Mrs. Ballew's class reminded us that when we feel weak, powerless, or frustrated, we can ask God to help us. In our K-2nd grade chapel, Mrs. Beckley's class acted out the parables of Jesus. Pastor Justin Reinhardt from Eastside Christian Church led us in worship.

HS/MS News

"Each year, the American Legion Auxiliary sponsors an Americanism Essay Contest for students in grades 3-12. Grade levels are divided into six classes, one award is presented in each class. First prize is $50. This year's title is "How can we address the health and well-being of our veterans, military, and their families". Essays are due with a Cover Sheet March 1, 2022. Please see Mr. Wilson, in the high school counseling office, for a cover sheet and more information."

The Spanish 1 classes held a Fashion Show on Monday. They wrote Spanish descriptions of their outfits, and read the descriptions for each other while they modeled.

The Middle School Spanish Club watched Encanto and made Colombian arepas.

The sixth grade Exploring World Cultures classes finished up their Sweden unit this week. They played floorball (similar to floor hockey, but played with a whiffle ball), and tried some Swedish foods: Våfflor (waffles) with lingonberry jam and Kladdkaka (chocolate cake).

Congratulations to all the students that participated in the vocal and piano ISSMA Solo and Ensemble Festival this year! 49 students participated at the district level and received great comments and scores from the judges. This past Saturday 7 soloists and 1 ensemble went on to the state level and all received Gold ratings! Awesome job, CAI students, in developing your musical skills as unto the Lord!
