-LAST WEEK'S SUMMARIES-

JV/VARSITY BOYS BASKETBALL

Last week, the Warriors travelled to Corydon to take on the host Panthers in their fourth game in eight days. Both the JV and Varsity came up short against talented Corydon teams. The Varsity was led by Joshua Renfro, who finished the night with eighteen points. Joshua was followed by Brady Dunn, who had eight points.

The Warriors head on the road this week before Sectionals kick off on Tuesday, March 1. The Warriors will face Lanesville in the opening round of Sectionals, hosted by Borden. CAI will have a limited number of pre-sale tickets available for purchase starting Wednesday, until they are sold out. Tickets will be $10.

-IN OTHER NEWS-

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

CAI Intramural Basketball started back up this last week with their draft day. In it's inaugural year (2020), CAI Intramurals had 51 participants, K-5th grade. This year, CAI has 74 participants in just K-3rd grades! CAI Athletics is excited to see our youngest Warriors in action, starting this Saturday.

TITLE IX CELEBRATION

A few weeks ago, CAI Athletics was pleased to hold a halftime recognition for all CAI female student-athletes, in celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the signing of Title IX. This crucial legislation created more opportunities for women in sports. In fact, when it was passed there were just 3,877 Hoosier female student-athletes participating in two sport offerings. Now we have 64,000+ female student-athletes participating across 10 sports here in Indiana each year! As I'm sure you all agree, the power of the lessons learned in sports is incredibly valuable to the future of young people, and Title IX opened up this door for young women!
