Elementary School Students (1–5th) - 1:00pm - 4:30pm

Performance -

June 30th @ 4:30pm

Purposes -

To develop individual talents and a greater love and appreciation for theatre

To give different opportunities and experiences on the stage

To give more exposure and techniques to theatre

To give a better understanding of the different responsibilities in the theatre world

Total Cost -

$250 ($225 for additional children in the same family)

Included - Camp shirt, 2 tickets for the performance (per child enrolled), all staging and props needed, all teaching materials

Main Objectives

High School - To learn multiple skits, songs, choreography to perform with excellence at the end of the camp. This will include allowing the students to be a part of the creative processes in choreography, script selection, staging, props, and costumes. High School students also have the opportunity to help with the other section of the camp.

Middle School - To learn how to stretch themselves in portraying specific characters on stage. This will include characterization, stage presence, rules of improv, and many other skills. This will include allowing the students to be a part of the creative processes in choreography, script selection, staging, props, and costumes.

Elementary School - To receive more experience on the stage acting and singing. Developing all around talents that are needed in theatre such as: stage presence, choreography, singing, and how to make the show the best it can be. The first day will focus on auditions. Instructions and help will be provided as the students prepare to audition for the available roles. Tips and personalized instruction will be given before the auditions are held that day.

Performances -

The high school and middle school students will be performing a variety of skits and musical numbers. These will range from skits like Abbott and Costello to music from Wicked. We have a vast array of ideas but we also are looking forward to the students input on this as part of the creative team.

The elementary students will be performing Lion King Kids. There are a lot of great roles and opportunities for growth through this show.
