CRAFTS

BLOSSOMING THE CROSS

As you are preparing for Easter, take some time with your family to make a cross and "blossom" it. Please do not go out and buy anything, but simply be creative and use items you already have at home to make your cross.

Here is just an example of what I did using some things I had at home. I used 2 paint stirrers, twine , glue, and fake flowers.

Here are some ways that students helped out at home last week:

Nic (5th grade) - cleaned bathrooms, took out the trash, loaded and unloaded the dishwasher, cleaned the floors, and cleaned up the table after meals.

Jolie (Kindergarten) - helped make pork chops for dinner.

KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK!
