Noche Mexican BBQ

Noche is an authentic tribute to Mexican BBQ, celebrating the rich traditions of family, food and festivity. Founded by Aaron Diaz who grew up in Texas immersed in the flavors and warmth of Mexican-style backyard BBQs, Noche brings the vibrant spirit of these gatherings to Louisville, KY.

Opening his first restaurant in a historic cathedral on Bardstown Road, Noche blends Diaz's passion for cooking with a deep appreciation for the family traditions that inspired him. Honoring the cultural significance of Día de los Muertos, the space serves as a vibrant celebration of life, love and remembrance. At Noche, every visit is a chance to eat, laugh, make memories and celebrate the beauty of gathering together. Salud!
