September 8th is our first REMOTE Learning Day

On this day (RED DAY) students will be working from home on class assignments/projects, while our staff works together throughout the day on professional development. Our goals are to seek ways to sharpen our strategies and activities to meet the needs of our students based on our most recent MAP Assessment results.

CALMS Honors God with...

At CALMS, we are striving to Honor God by working together to grow towards excellence. Paul reminds us in Colossians 3:23, "Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters." That verse reminds us who we're really working for.

We also seek ways that we can Honor God within our classroom instruction with the 3 Loves. This may be through instructional planning, art projects, music presented at an evening concert, on a sports field or court, and through the daily conversations with staff, students, and families.

Additionally we seek to Honor God through biblical integration within our classrooms - Seeking ways to make connections to Christ in everything we do.

Counselors Corner

As we dig in to a new school year, I want to welcome our new students, and welcome back our returning students! I am available to support the social-emotional needs of our students throughout the school year. I have been in every classroom already, introducing myself again, and helping students locate the Google Form being used for counseling requests again this year. The link for requests can be found in all Canvas classrooms, under Quick Links. If your student has a social-emotional need, don't hesitate to reach out.

Mrs. Ahner is also a part of our administrative team, providing support with administrative tasks and academic counseling. Fall MAP testing is wrapping up and you will receive an email in late September from Mrs. Hall with your child's scores. MAP scores are used as a benchmark for class placement and scheduling.

September is National Suicide Prevention Month. Mrs. Agee will join students in one of their classes to discuss Mental Health & Wellness. Students will be given resources and tools on how to deal with stress, anxiety, and sadness. The most important takeaway from these conversations is to always talk to a trusted adult. If your child has been impacted by suicide, please reach out to us. We want to be sensitive to any student who may have a difficult time during these presentations.

Please do not hesitate to contact us with questions or concerns:
