

Varsity boys basketball tops DeSales for 2A sectional title

The varsity boys basketball team beat visiting DeSales 70-55 on Saturday in the 2A Section Three tournament finals.

With the win, CAL advances to this weekend's 2A state tournament for the first time since 2020.

CAL jumped out to a 19-13 lead by the end of the first quarter of the sectional championship, but the Colts drew back within a bucket at 32-30 going into halftime.

The Centurions impressed after the intermission, outscoring DeSales 38-25 in the final two quarters to pull away with a 70-55 win.

JJ Washington led the Centurions with 19 points in the game.

CAL will play Warren East in the first round of the 2A state tournament on Friday at 10:30 a.m.

There's a fan bus available to the first 65 students who sign up. Contact the high school office for more information.

Varsity girls basketball falls in 2A sectional semis

The varsity girls basketball fell 50-12 to Nelson County in the 2A Section Three semifinals last Sunday.

Freshman Abby Bassett paced the Centurions offensively with seven points, including 3-of-4 shooting from the free throw line.

CAL beat Shawnee earlier in the season to advance to the semifinal game against the Cardinals.

The Centurions will look to get back in the win column on Tuesday when they travel to North Hardin.
