COUNSELORS' CORNER OCTOBER

At school students are learning how to be kind, handle big feelings, and work through challenges with others. This month we are focusing on the "Golden Rule" while helping students to understand the difference between conflict and bullying.

GOLDEN RULE

Treat others the way you want to be treated.

Matthew 7:12

CONFLICT

Conflict happens when people disagree. This is a normal part of school life as students learn to communicate in a productive manner with each other. Conflict involves:

- Power Balance
- Occasional
- Accidental
- Unintended To Harm
- Regret
- Effort Made To Resolve

WHAT CAN STUDENTS DO?

NO, GO, TELL

- Say NO to the bully
- GO away from the bully
- TELL a trusted adult.

INCLUDE, ENCOURAGE, RESPECT

- Include any peers that are being left out.
- Encourage peers who might be having a rough time.
- Respect their peers.

BULLYING

Bullying is when someone is intentionally unkind, hurtful, or uses power over someone else.

Bullying involves:

- Power Imbalance
- Repeated
- On Purpose
- Intended to Harm
- No Regret
- No Effort Is Made To Resolve

WHAT CAN FAMILIES DO?

- Talk about the difference between conflict and bullying.
- Encourage your child to a friend and not a bystander.
- Teach and model the Golden Rule at home and in everyday life.
- Let your student know that you are a safe place for them to come to when they are in need.

is returning!
