Chapel Family Questions:

Veterans are willing to sacrifice a lot to protect others. What does that remind us about Jesus?

Jesus gave up His life for us too — not just to protect us, but to save us from sin and bring us close to God. Veterans point us to the kind of love Jesus showed on the cross (John 15:13).

Veterans serve our country to give us freedom on earth. What kind of freedom does Jesus give us?

Jesus gives us freedom from sin and fear because He took our punishment on the cross. When we believe in Him, we are free to live with peace and hope forever (Galatians 5:1).

A Note from the Counselors:

Each week in November we will have a new question about gratitude for you to explore with your student.

Week Three

How does giving to others connect with being grateful to God?

Read: Matthew 28:18-20, Luke 10:25-37 and 14:12-14

- We can't show God how grateful we are to Him by giving Him things in return, because He doesn't need anything, so we must show it in some other way.
- God loves and cares for everyone, and He wants all of us to care for each other in the same way that He cares for us. Therefore, He has set up the world so that we can take care of each other, even as He takes care of us.
- When we give to someone who can't give back to us, we show that we are grateful for all the things God has given us without expecting anything in return, following the example of Christ.
- Giving to others often gives us an opportunity to share the Gospel and to tell others about the wonderful God we are serving through helping them.

"NO DIVISION ALLOWED"

Here at CAL we desire for us all to draw into ultimate unity with Jesus Christ and into Christlike unity with one another. (1 Cor. 1:10)
