

Hanover College Scholarship

Hanover College has created a new scholarship for first year students! Students entering in the fall of 2025 whose parent or legal guardian is employed by any K-12 school in Indiana is eligible for a $2,500 renewable scholarship. Students need to be admitted to Hanover, complete the FAFSA and provide proof of their parent's or legal guardian's full-time or permanent part-time employment at a K-12 school

Hanover also offers scholarships for students in a variety of interests and pursuits:

- Theater and Music – For those interested in theater or music (but not necessarily as their major) for participation in these departments
- Social Justice Leadership Program – For student interested in learning more about creating change in their community and building leadership experience
- Spencer Scholarship – For students planning to major in engineering.

All listed scholarships require an addition form that must be submitted by December 15, 2025.
