The menu at 1816 Modern Kitchen & Drinks showcases the chef's creativity and unique take on Southern comfort fusions. Chef Scott Dickenson focuses on providing freshly made food using locally sourced ingredients.

As a farm-to-table restaurant, 1816 Modern Kitchen & Drinks stands out in Corydon, IN, a town with loyal residents and visitors. Their historic building, located in downtown Corydon, is known as the Shafer Building. However, locals affectionately refer to it as "Jocko's," a former hangout spot famous for its cheeseburgers and pork tenderloins on the weekends. 1816 Modern Kitchen & Drinks strives to become a neighborhood gathering place for the community, where customers can enjoy excellent food, drinks, ambiance and, most importantly, fellowship.
