

WARRIOR UPDATE

SEPTEMBER 27, 2023

UPCOMING EVENTS

Thursday, September 28

5:00pm MS BTEN vs Lanesville
5:30pm C VBALL vs Corydon Central
6:00pm V BSOC @ Corydon Central
6:00pm JV VBALL vs Corydon Central
6:00pm MS VBALL (Blue) vs KCD
7:00pm MS VBALL (Gold) vs KCD
7:00pm V VBALL vs Corydon Central

Friday, September 29

6:00pm V VBALL @ Crothersville

Saturday, September 30

TBD MS VBALL (Silver) @ Mid America
TBD MS VBALL (Yellow) @ Mid America
9:00am JV VBALL @ North Harrison
Tourney

-LAST WEEK'S SUMMARIES-

VARSIITY CROSS COUNTRY

The Warriors competed well at the Silver Creek Dragon Invitational last Tuesday.

In the boys race, Alex Pinckney was the overall Champion while setting a new course record at Silver Creek in a time of 15:48. Alex broke the old record by ten seconds. Personal bests on the season were also recorded by Gavin Taylor, Lincoln Birke, Mason Taylor, Jonathan Stewart, and Riley Harper. The boys team placed sixth as a team in the invitational.

In the girls race, Anna Nash led the team with a 12th place medal and season best time, followed directly by a season best performance by Adeline Oakley in 13th place for a medal. Madison Smith also ran a season best time and placed 26th overall. The other girls were close to their season best times and competed very well on a challenging course. The girls team finished fifth overall in the Invitational.

The Warriors closed out their regular season with tremendous efforts on Saturday at the Lincoln Trail Invitational hosted by Tell City.

The girls team placed a very respectable sixth place against some powerhouse competition from some of the best teams in the State. Anna Nash led the team with her 39th place finish in a season best time of 22:15, she was followed by a season best performance from Adeline Oakley in 22:38, and Madelyn Lutz in 22:50, Jillian McKain ran her best race of the year as she finished in 24:39, and was followed by Katie Ammons in 26:15, Madison Smith in 26:37, and Cadence Black in 32:38 to finish out the race.

In the boys race, there were several season best performances once again. Alex Pinckney ran with the top three runners for the majority of the race and finished with a personal record time of 15:16 for third place. Alex, along with the other two runners in front of him each broke the existing course record by running some of the fastest times in the state this year. Gavin Taylor ran another personal best time of 18:33. Lincoln Birke and Mason Taylor were the third and fourth runners for the Warriors, and Jonathan Stewart finished with a personal best time of 22:19. Riley Harper was the sixth runner for the Warriors.

The XC team will now begin a three week training block to prepare them for peak performance at the Sectional Championship that will be held at Crawford County on October 14.

-LAST WEEK'S SUMMARIES (CONT'D)-

VARSIITY VOLLEYBALL

Varsity (16-8)

Results:

L @ Madison (25-19 / 21-25 / 17-25 / 20-25)

W vs. Lanesville (25-15 / 25-14 / 21-25 / 21-25 / 15-9)

W vs. West Washington (25-22 / 25-20 / 25-13)

Weekly Stat Leaders:

Aces - Kristen Abbott & Ella Peach - 11

Kills - Avery Kerr - 34

Passer Rating - Leah Stevens - 1.88

Assists - Ella Peach - 99

Digs - Kristen Abbott - 46

Summary:

We had to battle through some adversity this week and finished the week with wins versus two sectional opponents. Junior Kristen Abbott had a career high 24 digs and junior Avery Kerr had a career high 18 kills vs. Lanesville. Sophomore Ella Peach got in on the party with a career high 46 assists in our five set thriller with Lanesville. We finished the regular season 6-1 vs. sectional opponents; beating all of them at least once.

VARSIITY BOYS TENNIS

CAI hosted South Central on Monday. The Warriors lost 3-2, but a big improvement from Saturday when they beat us 5-0. Lucas Justice at #3 singles and the #2 doubles team of Isaiah Gilbert and Nate Hirschy both won in third set tiebreakers. Cooper Lewis and Blake Arndt also won their respective exhibition sets.

CAI hosted Floyd Central Tuesday night and were swept 5-0. The Warriors did win two of the three exhibition matches, with Kaden Day winning singles 6-4 and Cooper Lewis and Cooper Mikesell winning doubles 8-0.

Last Thursday, the team traveled to Borden tonight and fell 5-0 to a very strong, undefeated Braves team. The #2 doubles team of Isaiah Gilbert and Nate Hirschy lost in a third set tiebreaker. All four exhibition matches were very close losses.

CAI hosted New Washington for Senior Night and swept all five matches. It was our fourth team win of the season. Everyone played very solid, including our lone senior, Leyden Pavlica at #1 singles. Approximately twenty elementary intramural participants attended and were recognized before the match. It was a great night for Leyden, our team and the program.

JV VOLLEYBALL

JJV (14-3)

Results:

L - @ Madison (21-25 / 25-22 / 13-15)

W - vs. Lanesville (25-15 / 25-22)

W - vs. West Washington (25-17 / 25-15)

Stat Leaders:

Aces - Carly Stevens - 11

Kills - Maddie Webb 11

Blocks - Maddie Webb, Macy Jackson, Addison Jackson - 1

Assists - Olivia Pratt - 25

Digs - Carly Stevens - 45

Summary:

These JV girls just keep steamrolling along picking up the dubs left and right, but unfortunately faced one loss this past week. On Monday, they faced the Madison Cubs on their home court. Maddie Webb led the offense in kills with five total and Carly Stevens came in behind her with a total of seven aces to help round out the offense. Olivia Pratt set the ball around and walked away with nine assists, and Carly Stevens killed it with a total of 18 digs to end out the evening, but sadly it wasn't enough to pull out a win. On Tuesday, your JV Warriors faced the Lanesville Eagles at home. They started out really strong! Maddie Webb led the offense in aces with a total of three. Grace Oster came in behind her and put the ball away seven times. Maddie Webb assisted the team a total of 11 times. Carly Stevens, again, led the defense in an outstanding total of nine digs and Macy Jackson and Addison Jackson helped her out by getting one assisted block! On Thursday night, another home match, your JV Warriors faced the West Washington Senators. It was a solid match. Carly Stevens led offense with three aces, and Grace Oster and Alexis Bryant came in behind her with three kills for the evening. Olivia Pratt assisted the offense a total of nine times. Carly Stevens led the offense with a grand total of 18 digs for the night allowing the Warriors to take the victory!

C-TEAM VOLLEYBALL

C-Team Volleyball (2-7)

Results:

L - @ Whitefield

L- vs. Whitefield

Summary:

C-Team had two hard fought battles against Whitefield, one there and one played at CAI. The team lost both matches in two sets. Kathleen Allen had a couple of kills and Sydney Whitehead had several aces while serving for CAI. The team has one more match at CAI to close out their initial volleyball season.

-LAST WEEK'S SUMMARIES (CONT'D)-

MS GIRLS SOCCER

The Lady Warriors finished up an incredible first season with four straight wins. Last week they played Silver Creek twice and came away with a 2-0 victory in the first game followed by a 7-2 victory in the second game. The girls also logged a 9-0 win against North Harrison and finished the season with a hard fought 4-2 win over Providence. The team ended with a 6-3 record with their only losses coming from Scribner/Hazelwood and Highland Hills. What an amazing inaugural season for the girls middle school soccer team!

MS BOYS TENNIS

vs. Hazlewood

Singles:

Dylan Holland 5-8

Christian Duncan 8-0

Doubles:

Noah Smith/Ben Burke 8-0

Kohen Day/Liam Meadows 1-8

vs. Borden

Singles:

Dylan Holland 1-8

Christian Duncan 1-8

Doubles:

Noah Smith/Ben Burke 2-8

Kohen Day/Liam Meadows 3-8

MS VOLLEYBALL - GOLD

This week started off at CAL. The girls fought hard but eventually lost in two sets: 18-25 and 22-25. Emma Doss led the team with four aces. Hannah Peterson and Bella McMahan had some great passes. Ava Butler and Morgan Kreutzer were essential on defense. Gleason Mikesell had several kills. The girls played well as a team. Even with the season winding down, these girls still have a desire to improve and learn.

Thursday night was a great night at home. The girls beat Whitefield in two sets. The first game was a little slow, but CAI won 25-22. The second game they came out strong and won 25-14. Bella McMahan had eight aces and a great night with setting assists and passes. Reagan Smith and Hannah Peterson had a great passing game. Emma Doss was strong with passing and hitting with four kills. Morgan Kreutzer and Gleason Mikesell also were strong at the net! The girls had a great night being recognized by friends and family! Gleason Mikesell, Lillian Melvin, Emma Doss, Morgan Kreutzer, Bella McMahan and Reagan Smith told their favorite Bible verse and why it was their favorite and given a fun bag full of gifts. These girls show support for each other and truly love the game of volleyball. It will be fun to watch them continue to improve their volleyball skills in high school.

MS VOLLEYBALL - BLUE

The week started off strong at CAL. The girls came out strong in the first set and won 21-14. The second set they fought hard, but lost 17-21. However, in the third set, the girls didn't give up and won big: 15-6. Kelliann Laios had a great serving game with six aces. Ava Butler and Canaan Elliott had a great passing game. Veada Hedge had six assists and Amelia Middleton was a force at the net with five kills and several blocks! It was a fun night to watch all of the girls shine!

Thursday night the girls played Whitefield at home and came out with a win in two sets: 25-24 and 25-23. In the first game, the girls struggled with missed serves, but they found their rhythm in the second game. Canaan Elliott led with five aces. Maddie Blazer had a great passing game. Kelliann Laios had some great digs as well. Aubrey Odle had several kills and the rest of the girls added to the win! This was a fun night as it was eighth grade night and was a great way to recognize the girls. Kelliann Laios, Amelia Middleton and Anna McClary were celebrated for their commitment to CAI volleyball. They shared their favorite Bible Verse with everyone and got a fun bag of gifts! We will watch with anticipation as their volleyball skills continue to improve!